

2022 Tournament Guidelines

- All members must have a handicap (3 scores) to be tournament eligible.
- Some event during the tournament season will use our online tournament software. Email invitations will be emailed to sign up for the event(s). Please be sure to read the email in entirety as it contains detailed tournament info.
- All players must sign up in pro shop prior to the start of play for a tournament. When signing up the player must take an official tournament scorecard.
- SCORECARDS - The players full name and date is all that is needed on each scorecard. (signatures see below). Failure to comply will result in disqualification.
- Rules for each tournament will be posted in the following locations: via handout for certain events, all other events will be posted on the 1st and 10th tees as well as the white board outside of the Pro Shop. It is the players responsibility to check prior to starting round.
- Posting scores - All tournament scores will be posted by the Tournament Committee via Golf Genius at the conclusion of play. Exceptions to this would any match play event.
- Tournament Tuesday deadlines are firm. There will be plenty of notice in advance (email/signs). No sign ups will be allowed after the deadline has passed. An alternate list will be created. Should a player already signed up drop out, a player from the alternate list will be added.
- Signatures on scorecards as follows: 2 signatures – ie. 18 hole medal play – marker and competitor, 3 signatures - ie. Member/Member – 2 partners & 1 competitor, 4 signatures for ABCD events. Failure to comply could result in disqualification.
- All ties (gross & net) will be broken using the USGA guidelines (low back nine total, last six holes, last three holes and last hole).
- A 2 tournament suspension will be enforced for any withdrawal or no show after the tournament pairings have been set.
- All tournaments dates set forth by the tournament committee are final and will be played on their scheduled day. Any changes to these dates will be made by the Tournament Committee with approval of the Executive Board of the Club.
